Third-year students are encouraged to continue meeting with their Success Coach 1 time per quarter.

By Week 2, complete a SMART goal on your Success Plan.

Align your passions, interests, talents, strengths, and values with post-graduation plans (graduate school, career, gap year, etc.).

Meet with your college and/or major advising office.

Attend at least 1 workshop per quarter. If not a success coaching workshop, complete the reflection form on your Success Plan.

Ask faculty and staff for feedback on your achievements, experiences, and goals to seek ways to stand out for post-graduation goals.

Identify a faculty or professional mentor who can directly influence and support your future goals.
